How did Scoozy obtain your personal data?

Scoozy has obtained your data because you have provided this data to us.

What are your rights?

Under the European General Data Protection Regulation you have a number of rights with regard to your data and the processing thereof:

Access

You may access your personal information and make any necessary changes in your account. If you would like to see which personal data Scoozy has obtained about you, you may exercise your right of access by submitting a request to Scoozy.

Making changes

If you wish to make changes to the personal information that you have seen as a result of a request for access and you are unable to make the changes yourself in your account, you may request that Scoozy makes these changes for you. You may request that Scoozy modifies, corrects, supplements, erases or shields your information.

Restriction of processing of personal data

You also have the right, under certain conditions, to ask Scoozy to restrict the processing of your personal data.

Right to object

If processing of your data takes place on the grounds of 'legitimate interest' by Scoozy or a third party, you have the right to object to that processing.

Portability of data

You have the right to obtain your personal data from Scoozy. Scoozy will provide this in a structured and commonly used format, which can easily be opened using commonly used digital systems.

Withdrawing consent

When the legal basis for a particular processing is your explicit consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. This does not affect past processing, but does mean that we will no longer be allowed to process this data in the future. It may also result in Scoozy no longer being able to provide you with certain services.

Response from Scoozy

A request can be sent to info@scoozy.nl. Scoozy will comply with your request as soon as possible and in any case no later than one (1) month after Scoozy has received such a request. If Scoozy rejects your request, we will indicate in our reply why the request was rejected.

Recipients of your personal data

Your data may be transmitted to:

- Data processors
- Parties that are involved in the execution or fulfilment of an agreement between you and Scoozy

It is possible that Scoozy is required to submit your data to a third party, for example to fulfil a legal obligation.

Transfer to third countries or international organisations

It may be necessary, for instance for technical and operational reasons, to transfer your (personal) data to affiliates of Scoozy located outside the European Economic Area. Due to the possibility that the regulations in the area of privacy protection do not offer the same protection as within the European Economic Area, Scoozy will use the EU Model Clauses to protect your privacy as much as possible. If that is not possible, Scoozy will ask your consent to transfer your (personal) data to countries that do not maintain an adequate protection level. You may withdraw your consent at any time.

What are cookies and how does Scoozy use them?

Cookies are small pieces of (text) information that are sent to your browser when you visit the website of Scoozy and then stored on the hard disk or in the memory of your device. The cookies placed via Scoozy's website cannot damage your device or the files stored on it. With 'cookies', we also mean comparable techniques collecting information, such as device fingerprinting.

Can changes be made to this Privacy Statement?

This Privacy Statement is subject to changes. We therefore advise you to regularly read the Privacy Statement for any such changes.

Questions, remarks, and complaints

If you have any questions regarding this Privacy Statement or the way in which Scoozy uses your data, you can send an e-mail to info@scoozy.nl. If you have a complaint about the way your data is processed, please send an e-mail to info@scoozy.nl. Furthermore, you always have the right to contact the competent national data protection authority. In The Netherlands, this is the Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens.
